Air transportation

Our company provides airfreight services both on the territory of Russia and abroad.

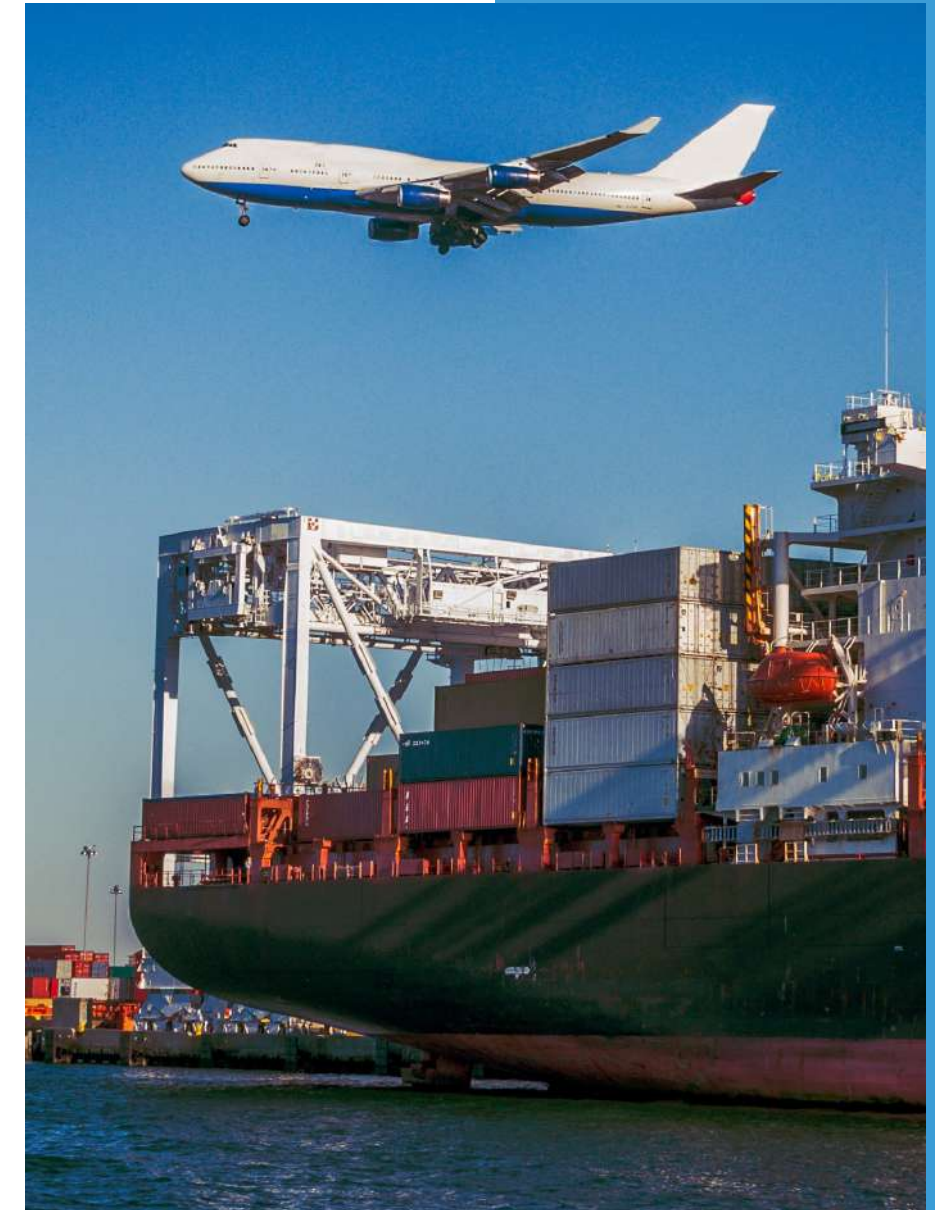

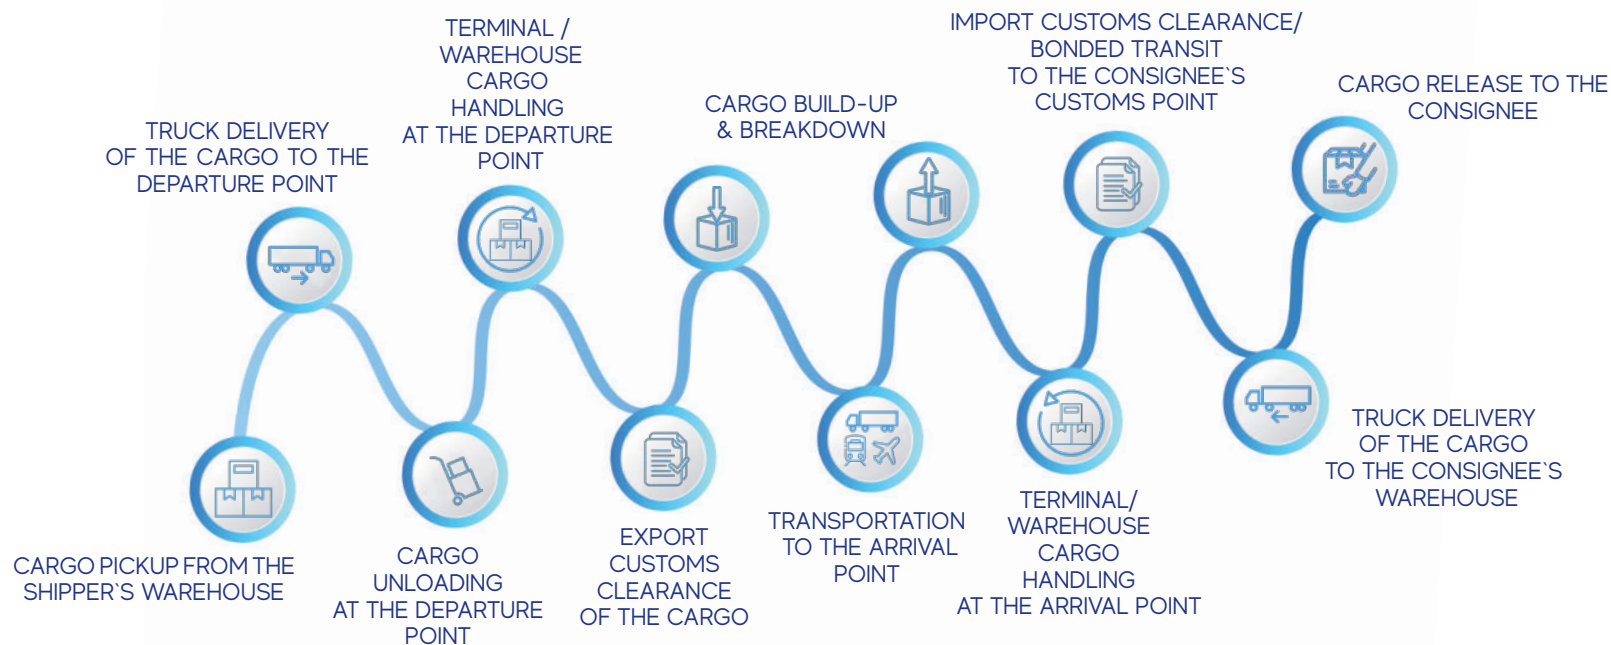

Direct contracts with airlines, a developed agency network all over the world, as well as membership in international freight forwarders' associations allows to deliver the goods quickly and efficiently and solve any issues related to dispatch and acceptance of cargo at airports of departure and arrival.

Multimodal transportation

Our company provides services for the organization of International and domestic multimodal cargo transportation.

After agreeing all the details with the Client, our specialists determine the most optimal and beneficial transportation scheme for the Client, organize all the necessary services for transportation, ensuring the transportation of goods within the time period specified by the Client.

Rail transportation from China

Our company organizes rail transportation of goods from China to Russia both in separate containers (FCL) and as part of the consolidated cargo (LCL).

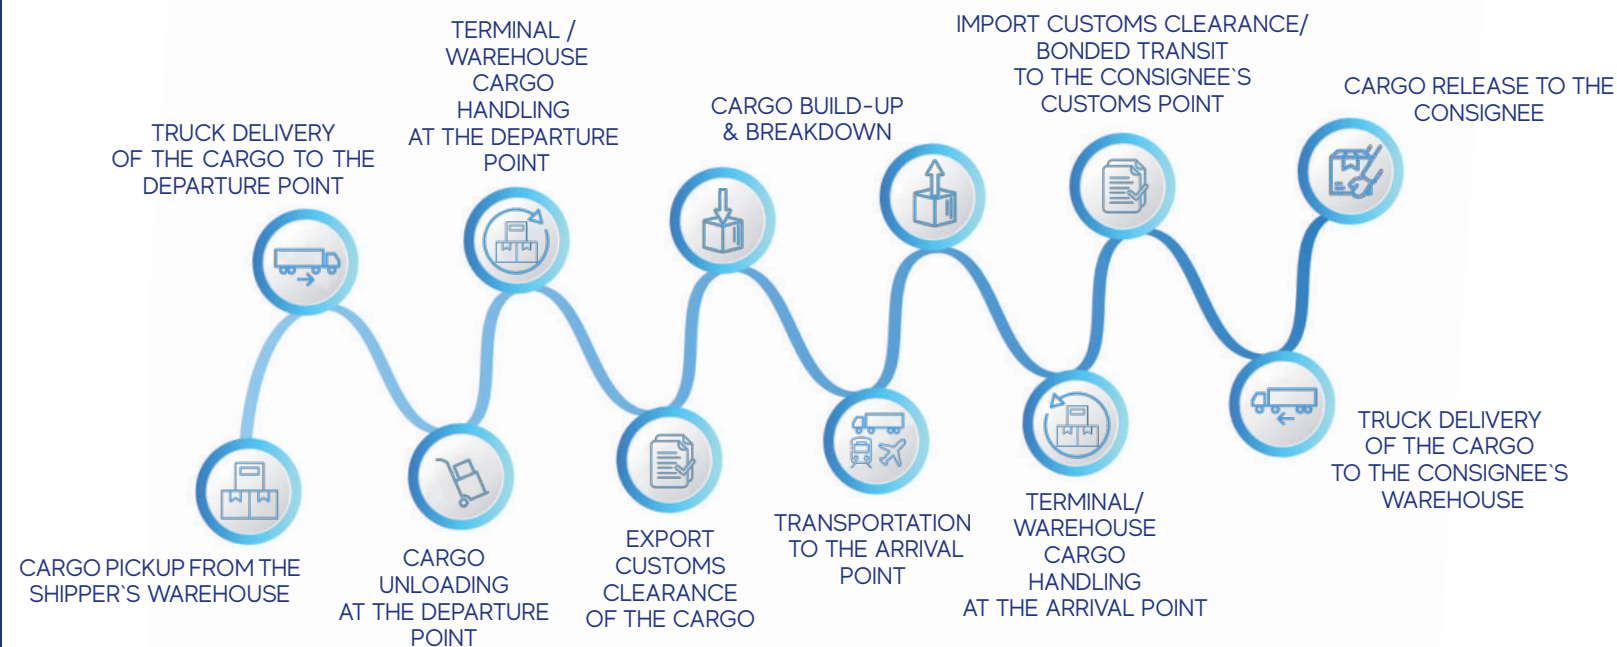

The average time of cargo delivery by rail from China to Moscow is from 20 to 45 days.

Door-To-Door Delivery

When arranging domestic and international shipments, our company provides Door-To-Door Delivery. This service represents the transportation of goods from the departure to the arrival points using one or several types of transport.

Our company manages the entire shipping process, taking into account the route, cargo characteristics, delivery terms and the Client's target rate.

Cargo charter flights

If you need to transport any type of cargo, including dangerous (DG) or oversized, we will analyze its characteristics, select the appropriate type of aircraft, airline, the best flight route (taking into account requirements of airports, airport charges, fuel prices) and arrange a cargo charter flight in the shortest possible time.

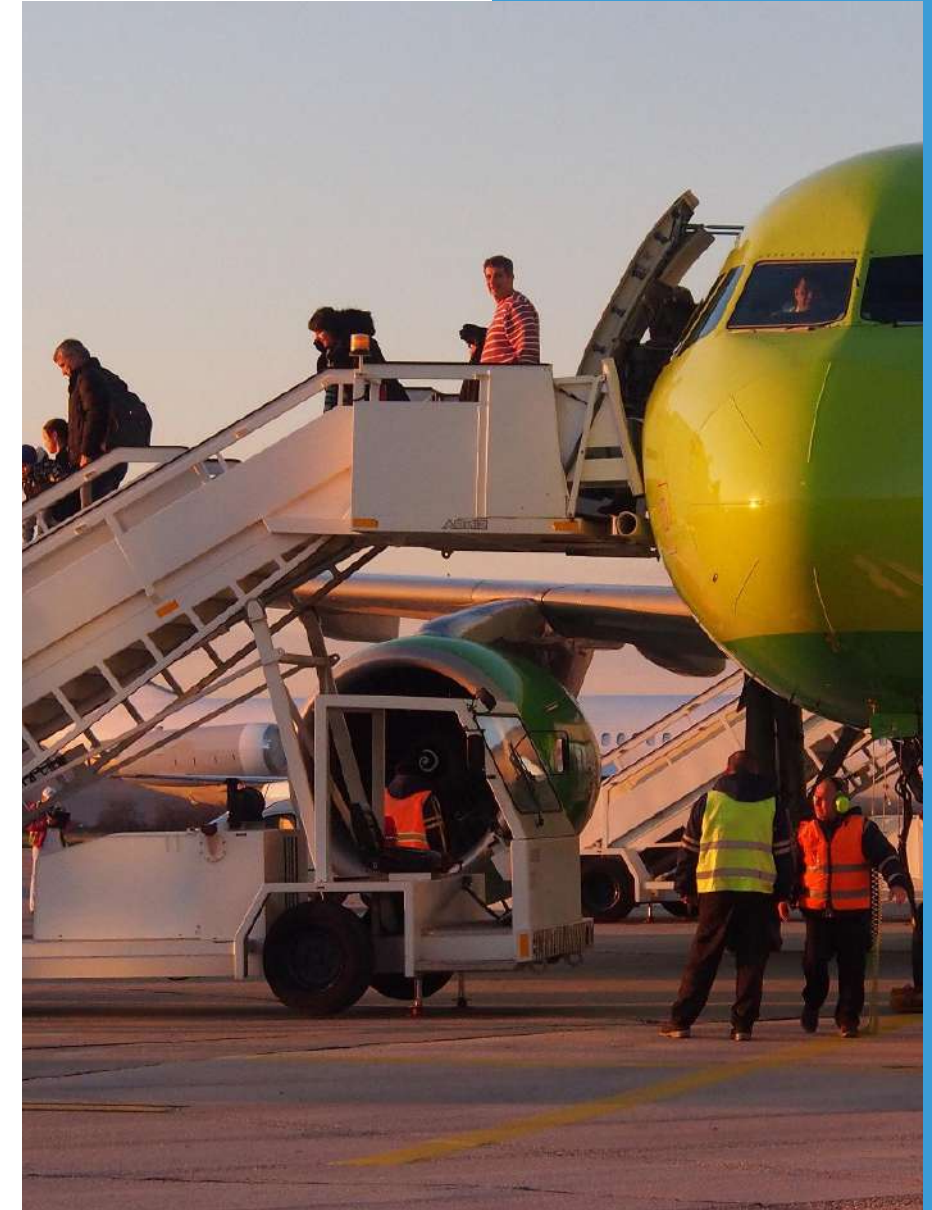

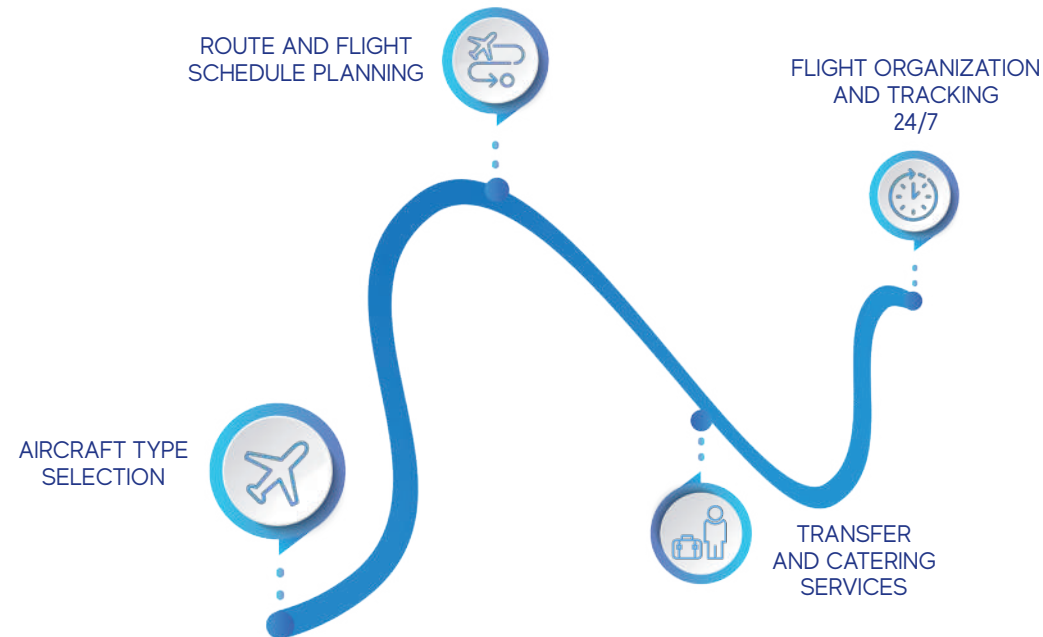

Our company will obtain permits along the route, arrange ground handling and refueling.

Passenger charter flights

If you need to carry a large group of people or charter an entire aircraft, our team will arrange a flight with all the requirements. We will select an appropriate type of aircraft and check an aircraft availability for the required date in the shortest possible time.

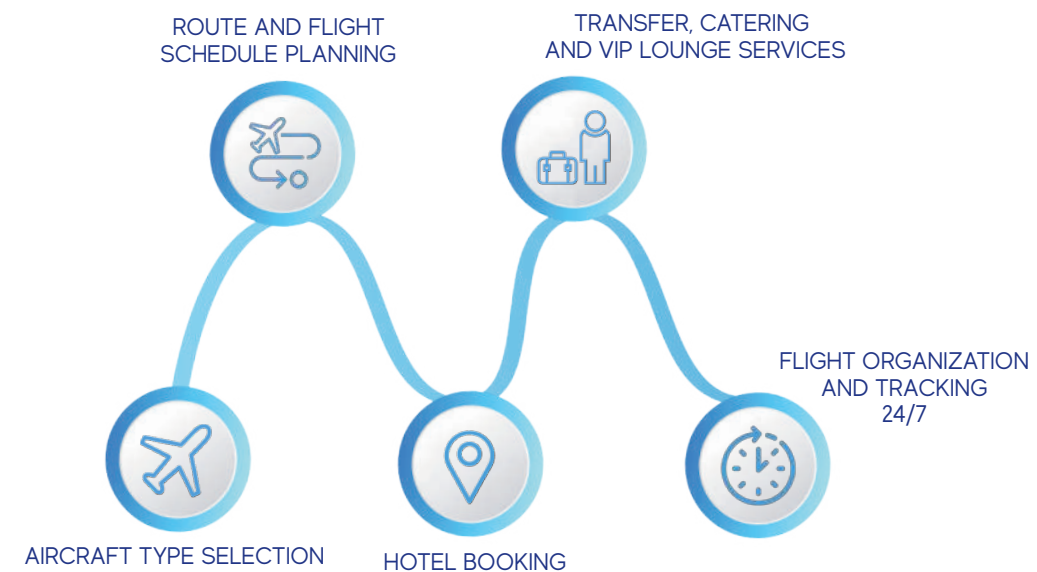

Our company provides comprehensive solutions for the passenger's transportation by organizing corporate charter flights, tours of artists and theaters, evacuations and humanitarian flights, tours to conferences, exhibitions and unique events, transportation of shift workers, ship crews and sports teams.

VIP charter flights

Are you planning a trip with your family and friends? We will arrange an exclusive and comfortable flight to any airport you wish. Our specialists will save your time and money by developing the best solution. We organize business trips, leisure trips, flights to attend various events around the world. Our flight will deliver passengers to the desired airport exactly the appointed time.
